CODE OF CONDUCT

The Aims and Objectives

- * To Encourage and promote social fellowship between native and non-native persons.
- * To strive to secure equality of rights and opportunity for all persons, regardless of race.
- * To promote progress in the educational, social, economic, athletic, and cultural life of both native and non-native people.
- * To promote native leadership in the native community.

The Directors and Members of the Centre are required to follow this and all other codes of conduct established by the Centre at all times.

At all times, Directors and Members will treat each other, the Centre staff and members of the public who attend the Centre or Centre sponsored events with respect, dignity, and honesty.

Directors and Members shall refrain from name-calling, threatening, aggressive behaviour or otherwise encroaching on another person's personal space or integrity at the Centre and/or Centre sponsored events.

Consequences for Breach

Any breach of the code of conduct and conflict of interest policy may result in the removal of either a Director for the Board of Directors, or Member from the Member's Registry, respectively.

Any decision made on the consequences of any breach rests with the Board of Directors and the decisions of the Board of Directors are final.
